Title: 30th International Workshop on Statistical Modelling (IWSM)

Location: Linz, Austria

July 6-10 2015

IWSM will celebrate its 30th anniversary. The conference will be hosted by the Department of Applied Statistics of the Johannes Kepler University Linz (Austria) from July 6-10, 2015. As in previous years, the workshop will bring together a wide variety of international researchers, coming from all over the world and featuring different levels of experience, to encourage discussion and interchange between junior and senior scientists.

Confirmed invited speakers are Richard Chandler

(<http://www.homepages.ucl.ac.uk/~ucakarc/>) (University College London)

Andrew Finley (<http://blue.for.msu.edu/>) (Michigan State University)

Sylvia Frühwirth-Schnatter (<http://statmath.wu.ac.at/~fruehwirth/>) (Vienna University of Business and Economics)

Sonja Greven (<http://www.stat.uni-muenchen.de/~greven/>) (Ludwig-Maximilians-University Munich)

John Hinde (<http://www.nuigalway.ie/mathsjh/>) (National University of Ireland, Galway)

A Short Course on the day before the conference (July 5, 2015) will be held by Alan Agresti (University of Florida)

In order to submit abstracts and to register for the conference, please visit <http://ifas.jku.at/iwsm2015/>.

The deadline for abstract submission is January 31, 2015 and for early registration April 30, 2015.
