Department of Statistics Columbia University

Faculty Position Starting Fall 2015

The Department of Statistics invites applications for a tenure-track Assistant Professor position in applied/interdisciplinary statistics to begin July 1, 2015. A Ph.D. in statistics or a related field and commitment to high quality research and teaching in statistics and/or probability are required. Candidates will be expected to sustain an active research and publication agenda and to teach in the departmental undergraduate and graduate programs. The ideal candidate would be eligible to become a member of the Institute for Data Sciences and Engineering.

The department currently consists of 25 faculty members, 40 PhD students, and over 100 MS students. The department has been expanding rapidly and, like the University itself, is an extraordinarily vibrant academic community. For further information about the department and our activities, centers, research areas, and curricular programs, please go to our web page at: <http://www.stat.columbia.edu> Applicants are required to create an applicant profile and upload a CV through Columbia's online Recruitment of Academic Personnel System (RAPS). To begin the application process, please go to <https://academicjobs.columbia.edu/applicants/Central?quickFind`010>

Additionally, applicants must submit materials through Head Hunter (<https://editorialexpress.com/hhc>). The Department of Statistics positions will be visible in Head Hunter by clicking on "Positions" after logging in to the Candidate Application Interface. In Head Hunter, applicants for this position should submit a cover letter, current Curriculum Vitae, a brief statement of their research plans, one writing sample, and arrange for three letters of reference to be sent on their behalf.

Applications will only be considered for the position once the process is completed both in RAPS and in HEAD HUNTER.

Inquiries may be made to dk@stat.columbia.edu

Review of applications begins on December 2, 2014, and will continue until the position is filled.
