Fecha límite de envío de abstracts: 15 de diciembre 2014

The 6th International Workshop on Compositional Data Analysis will take place in Girona (Spain) from June 1st to 5th, 2015

CoDaWork is a forum of discussion of theory and applications of the statistical analysis of Compositional Data.

We welcome contributions about:

- general theory and methods of analysis of compositions,
- pre-processing data tools and zero treatment,
- applications to life sciences and medicine,
- applications to chemistry, earth and environmental sciences,
- applications to economy, official statistics and social sciences, as well as any other field of application where compositions or data from constrained spaces appear. There will be no parallel sessions.
