

Lectureship in Statistics at the Open University

por webadmin - Domingo, noviembre 29, 2015

<http://www.biometricsociety.net/2015/11/29/lectureship-in-statistics-at-the-open-university/>

The Department of Mathematics and Statistics is seeking a Lecturer or Senior Lecturer in Statistics.

You will contribute to developing and delivering high-quality distance learning teaching materials across the statistics curriculum, and will also contribute to the research and/or scholarship of the Statistics Group. In addition, you will be expected to undertake administrative roles as required.

The department offers a flexible working environment. Teaching at The Open University is collaborative and team-based, offering excellent support for the training and induction of new staff into The Open University teaching process.

Informal enquiries regarding the post can be made to Dr Catriona Queen (Catriona.Queen@open.ac.uk) or Professor Uwe Grimm (Uwe.Grimm@open.ac.uk).

Closing date: noon on 5 January 2016.

For detailed information regarding the post, the person specification and information on how to apply please refer to the Further Particulars at <http://www.open.ac.uk/employment/job-details.asp?id=8938> or email MCT-Staffing@open.ac.uk quoting the reference number.

We promote diversity in employment and welcome applications from all sections of the community.

— The Open University is incorporated by Royal Charter (RC 000391), an exempt charity in England & Wales and a charity registered in Scotland (SC 038302). The Open University is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.