DURHAM, 14 TO 19 JULY 2024

The 38th International Workshop on Statistical Modelling (IWSM) will take place in Durham City, England, UK.

The IWSM is one of the major activities of the Statistical Modelling Society, founded with the purpose of promoting and encouraging statistical modelling in its widest sense. The workshop aims to involve both academic and professional statisticians and data analysts with a particular focus on real data problems which involve an element of novel statistical modelling, or novel model application.

The atmosphere of the workshop is friendly and supportive, with no parallel sessions, with the aim of stimulating the exchange of ideas and experiences related to statistical modelling.

Important dates:

- Cooling-off submission period for poster submissions until Monday, April 1st .
- April 9, 2024: Notification of acceptance
- May 14, 2024: Deadline for manuscript submissions for proceedings volumes (4-8 pages)
- The Early Bird deadline is 22/04/2024.
